Why Slokas/Bhajans are important to me?

By Sriakshitha Jayaganesh

I heard the famous poet from Bengali, Rabindranath Tagore said, "Bhajans are the greatest forms of worship"

What's so great about telling Slokas? Well, It gives me a very positive mindset when you recite them, and it helps with improving my focus and concentration. It's also the way of connecting Singing or listening to devotional songs is also a way to connect to god or nature. It helps to remove all negativity in one's mind and expresses the inner joy.
